Golfer's Clinic Offered at Special Olympics Women's Golf Outing The Perlman Cup Benefits More Than 18,000 Athletes of Special Olympics New Jersey

LAWRENCEVILLE – Calling all women golfers and those who have always wanted to try golf! The Perlman Cup, Special Olympics New Jersey's women only golf outing, is being held Monday, May 11 at the Forsgate Country Club in Monroe Township. The event includes the annual Perlman Cup 18-hole shotgun scramble tournament and a newly introduced golf clinic for beginners and wanabe golfers.

Sponsored by BASF Corporation and Bank of America, the tournament begins at 1:30 p.m. and is limited to 120 players. The Golfer's clinic will take place from 4 – 6 p.m. and includes instruction on the fundamentals of the golf swing, short-game, rules & etiquette, and course-management. No prior golf experience is necessary. An awards dinner, raffle and silent auction will round out the day for all

This tournament is dedicated to the memory of Ms. Bessie Cutter Perlman, founder of Special Olympics New Jersey, and all proceeds benefit SONJ.

To register, or for additional information on sponsorship opportunities, contact Diane Paraskevas at developmentinfo@sonj.org, or (609) 896-8000.
