COPS TRADE-IN HANDCUFFS FOR APRONS AND GOURMET BURGERS

Red Robin and Law Enforcement Officers Raise Funds to Benefit Special Olympics New Jersey

Who: Special Olympics New Jersey (SONJ), local Law Enforcement agencies, and Red Robin Gourmet Burgers, Inc. (Red Robin)

What: Local law enforcement will trade in their handcuffs and badges for aprons and gourmet burgers at the Red Robin® restaurant in South Plainfield, NJ as part of the national Tip-A-Cop event with Special Olympics. During the event, law enforcement will collect special tips from restaurant guests that will benefit Special Olympics New Jersey.

When: Saturday, April 17
11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 4 - 8 p.m.

Where: Red Robin® restaurant
6200 Hadley Road
South Plainfield, NJ

Why: Supporting local and national causes like Special Olympics that promote the health and welfare of families and citizens in local communities is an important part of the Red Robin culture. Red Robin has been supporting Special Olympics Programs across the country for more than six years.

Tip-A-Cop® is part of the annual Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR) campaign. The New Jersey LETR is a grassroots fundraiser and public awareness vehicle through which funds raised go directly to Special Olympics programs in New Jersey.
